MUDA site allotment scam

CM's Prosecution

All eyes on Guv's next move

Bengaluru, Aug. 6 (KMS & BCT)- Karnataka Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot is expected to respond soon to the Cabinet resolution urging him to reject activist T.J. Abraham's request for the prosecution of CM Siddaramaiah in the alleged Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) land allotment scam. The BJP and JD(S) are pressing for the prosecution.

The Governor returned from New Delhi yesterday, and all eyes are on his next move whether he will order CM's prosecution. He has held consultations regarding several matters, including the investigation by a sitting Judge of High Court against Siddaramaiah. Gehlot has been discussing with senior officials and legal experts on the issue over past five to six days.

Sources informed Star of Mysore this morning that Gehlot will delay his decision on sanctioning prosecution until Aug. 12. The decision is on hold due to ongoing Parliament Budget Session, New Delhi, which is scheduled to conclude on that date.

If the Governor decides to sanction prosecution, Opposition parties are expected to create an uproar in the Parliament. This has heightened political curiosity and anticipation across Karnataka, as the next move by the Governor remains secretive.

Another complaint lodged with Governor

Social activist Snehamayi Krishna has lodged a second complaint with the Governor regarding CM Siddaramaiah, seeking approval for prosecution in the MUDA site deal, following a similar complaint by activist T.J. Abraham. Krishna, who has previously filed a complaint with the Lokayukta, alleges that Siddaramaiah obtained 14 sites through his family members by creating fraudulent documents. The complaint accuses Siddaramaiah of direct involvement in the case, where his wife, B.M. Parvathi, is alleged to have acquired land through irregular means.

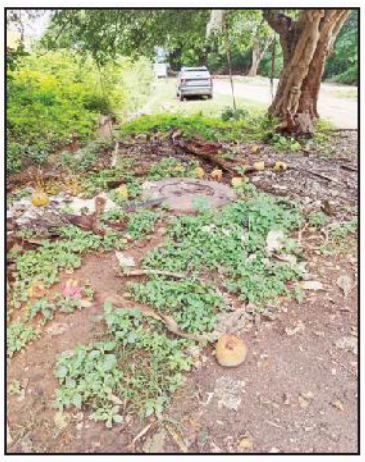
Woes of Ramakrishnanagar 18th Cross residents



Sir,

This letter is to bring to your attention, and the attention of the authorities concerned, the garbage piled up at G-Block, Ramakrishnanagar, near the front gate rainwater gutter of Eshwara and Ganapathi Temple located at 18th Cross.

The rainwater gutter (storm-water drain) was recently reconstructed and widened (the old one was not visible due to garbage accumulation) and bridges were built connecting each of the crossroads.

However, people continue to throw garbage into these rainwater canals, causing significant blockages. As a result, the water cannot flow freely. Additionally, a lot of parthenium weeds and other plants have occupied the canal line.

I request the MCC Commissioner to take action. The canal link from G-Block 18th Cross Temple to Lingambudhi Tank has not been completed, as a tunnel needs to be made under the road. I have attached a photo for your reference. I kindly request the authorities to address this issue and take necessary action as soon as possible.

Tax Practitioners Day in city

Former FKCCI President Sudhakar S. Shetty lighting the lamp to inaugurate Tax Practitioners Day celebrations in city as MCCI President K.B. Lingaraju, AIFTP Natl. President Narayan P. Jain, KSTPA President S. Nanjunda Prasad, Conference Chairman Mukund L. Potnis and others look on.

Mysuru, Aug. 6 (BLU&DM)- Observing that Tax Practitioners play a vital role in economic development of State and the country, former FKCCI (Federation of Karnataka Chambers of Commerce and Industries) President Sudhakar S. Shetty reiterated the demand for covering Tax Practitioners across the country under the Centre's Group Insurance Scheme.

He was speaking after inaugurating Tax Practitioners Day celebrations on the second and concluding day of the two-day National Tax Conference and Tax Practitioners Day organised by All India Federation of Tax Practitioners (AIFTP) in association with Karnataka State Tax Practitioners Association (KSTPA) at a private hotel on Hunsur Road here yesterday.

"Tax Practitioners should give their best for the growth of the nation and at the same time do justice for their clients. New Technologies must be adopted in accordance with the fast changing times in order to keep abreast of the latest developments in the world of finance and investments", he said while stressing on the need for Tax Practitioners to upgrade their skills for meeting newer challenges that come with advancement in technology.

Pointing out that it is happy to note that Karnataka is placed second in the country in GST payments list, Sudhakar Shetty attributed it to the work of Tax Practitioners of the State. Noting that there was opposition to the GST from several quarters initially when in it was introduced seven years ago, Shetty said that however, with the passage of time, traders and others coming under the GST regime, gradually became acclimatised to it by incorporating it as a routine, which is a good development.

MCCI President K.B. Lingaraju, AIFTP National President Narayan Prasad Jain, KSTPA President S. Nanjunda Prasad, Conference Chairman Mukund L. Potnis and others were present.

Gowramma (72) of Basavanagudi, was on foot march along with fellow party workers prior to the public rally, when she collapsed due to heart attack. She was rushed to a hospital in Channapatna, but didn't survive, it is said.

Following the incident, State BJP President B.Y. Vijayendra and JD(S) Youth Wing President Nikhil Kumaraswamy, paid their last respects to the mortal remains of Gowramma, at the hospital.

Activist T.J. Abraham urges MUDA to withdraw sites allotted to CM's wife

Mysuru Aug. 6 (BLU&BCT)- Continuing his legal battle, advocate and activist T.J. Abraham, who is the President of the Anti-Graft/Corruption and Environmental Forum, yesterday moved a fresh petition before the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) seeking the revocation of the 14 sites allocated to CM Siddaramaiah's wife B.M. Parvathi under the 50:50 land allotment scheme.

Advocate and activist T.J. Abraham addressing media persons in Mysuru yesterday on MUDA site scam.

Meeting Commissioner A.N. Raghunandan at the MUDA Office yesterday, Abraham contended that the land for which alternative sites were allotted by MUDA to Parvathi did not even belong to the CM's family in the first place.

Layouts at Kesare in 2001

Speaking to reporters, Abraham said that Siddaramaiah's wife had been illegally allotted 14 residential sites in Vijayanagar 3rd and 4th Stage, as the 3 acres and 16 guntas of land in Kesare that she claimed to own had been developed into MUDA's Devanur 3rd Phase Layout in 2001, even before her brother Mallikarjunaswamy could purchase it in 2004.

"As per statements by Siddaramaiah, his brother-in-law Mallikarjunaswamy bought agricultural land at Kesare village in Mysuru city in 2004. My question is, were there farmlands in Kesare, which were taken over by MUDA in the early 2000s? As per documents, residential layouts were established in Kesare in 2001. How can residential sites be bought by a person as farmland? What is the need to convert lands that are already residential sites?" advocate Abraham asked.

Conversion order by DC in 2005

He also raised questions over the conversion (through denotification) of 3 acres and 16 guntas of 'agricultural' land in Sy. No. 464 at Kesare for 'residential' purposes by the Mysuru Deputy Commissioner in 2005, as MUDA had already developed the Devanur 3rd Phase residential layout on the same plot of land and distributed the sites.

"Which agricultural land did the Tahsildar and Deputy Commissioner inspect before issuing orders for converting the land into residential purposes?" he questioned.

Dr. Yathindra was on MUDA Board

"When the compensation and alternative lands were being distributed to Siddaramaiah's wife, their son Dr. Yathindra Siddaramaiah was the Varuna MLA and attended important meetings of various government agencies, including the MUDA Board. Does it not amount to nepotism?" Abraham asked.

Abraham claimed that the value of the 14 MUDA sites allotted to Siddaramaiah's wife was around Rs. 55 crore, and urged the MUDA Commissioner to withdraw the allotment as the sites must return to the State. He said he would wait and see if MUDA would take back the sites allotted to Siddaramaiah's wife. "Or else, I will pursue the case legally," he said.

'When I spoke about BSY, I was honest, but now I am a blackmailer'

Mysuru Aug. 6 (BLU & BCT)- Advocate T.J. Abraham stated that although CM Siddaramaiah has not signed any documents related to the MUDA sites, it is evident that he has exerted his influence, making this a suitable case for prosecution under the Prevention of Corruption Act and the new provisions under the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita.

"Even in the case of former CM B.S. Yediyurappa (BSY), I cited a similar instance and approached the then Governor Hansraj Bharadwaj to sanction prosecution against him. Bharadwaj responded to my plea by granting sanction for prosecution, leading to Yediyurappa's resignation," he recalled.

"Siddaramaiah's wife Parvathi and Siddaramaiah have claimed that the land in Kesare/Devanur was a gift from Mallikarjunaswamy, Parvathi's brother. However, when the same land was denotified while Siddaramaiah was the Deputy CM, how can Siddaramaiah claim he had no role in this?" Abraham asked.

"When I made allegations against former CM Yediyurappa, Siddaramaiah was supportive and called me an honest activist. But when I addressed issues concerning Siddaramaiah, he called me a blackmailer. Is this fair? His supporters are abusing and trolling me on social media. This demonstrates his double standards. Rather than addressing the facts, Siddaramaiah has resorted to attacking me," he claimed.

Call for Dharmayuddha against BJP-JD(S)

Mysuru, Aug. 6 (MTY & DM)- Congress Rajya Sabha member G.C. Chandrashekar alleged that the Governor issued show-cause notice to CM Siddaramaiah in connection with MUDA scam, bowing to the pressure of the opposition BJP and JD(S).

He was addressing Congress leaders and workers at Janandolana Rally preparatory meeting at Congress Bhavan near City Railway Station yesterday.

Maintaining that the Congress is holding the rally as a Dharmayuddha (Holy War) against the BJP and JD(S) conspiracies to destabilise the Congress Government, he said that only Siddaramaiah has the capacity to take on PM Narendra Modi.

Asserting that Siddaramaiah has remained untainted in his over 4-decades of politics, he said that the BJP-JD(S) are now plotting to tarnish the image of the CM by taking out Mysuru Chalo Padayatra.

Charging the BJP of making continuous efforts to finish off Siddaramaiah, the MP said that the Opposition is taking out the padayatra in order to spread lies about the CM and Congress Government. As such, the Congress has organised the Janandolana Public Rally in Mysuru on Aug. 9 to give a fitting reply to the Opposition, he said.

KPCC Spokesperson M. Lakshmana said the Aug. 9 rally is aimed at giving a fitting reply to BJP-JD(S). Asserting that CM has no role whatsoever in MUDA scam, he alleged that the Opposition had hatched a plot against the CM as part of its larger conspiracy to oust the Congress Government in State.

Noting that the Government has ordered a thorough probe into MUDA scam, he said the Opposition will fail in its attempts to tarnish the image of CM.

MLA K. Harish Gowda and other Congress leaders too spoke.

City Congress President R. Murthy, MLC Dr. D. Thimmaiah, KEA Chairman Ayub Khan, former MLAs M.K. Somashekar and Dr. Bharathishankar, former Mayors B.K. Prakash, Modamani, Pushpalatha Chikkanna and B.L. Bhyrappa, former MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev, leaders H.A. Venkatesh, K.V. Mallesh, M. Shivanna, Eshwar Chakkadi and others were present.

Congress Party's Janandolana Rally in city on Aug. 9

More than 2 lakh people will take part : MUDA Chairman

Mysuru, Aug. 6- Senior Congress leader and MUDA Chairman K. Marigowda said that more than 2 lakh people are expected to take part in Congress Party's Janandolana Public Rally at Maharaja's College Grounds in city on Aug. 9, to counter BJP-JD(S) padayatra.

He was addressing the preparatory meeting hosted by Mysuru taluk Kurubara Sangha at Kanaka Bhavan in Siddarthanagar here yesterday.

Alleging that the Opposition BJP-JD(S) parties are unable to digest the fact that Siddaramaiah who comes from AHINDA community and a tall leader of the oppressed classes, became the Chief Minister for second time, Marigowda maintained that there is no connection between CM Siddaramaiah and the MUDA scam. But still the Opposition is targeting the CM just because he belongs to Backward Class, he said.

Alleging that the Governor has become a puppet in the hands of Opposition, he alleged that Governor issued a showcause notice to CM in undue haste, based on a complaint by an RTI activist, which is totally incorrect. Marigowda urged the community members to take part in Aug. 9 rally in large numbers.

Former State Kurubara Sangha President B. Subramanya questioned the Governor's action of issuing a showcause notice to CM Siddaramaiah, who has the support of 136 Congress MLAs, based only on a complaint by an RTI activist.

Alleging a huge conspiracy to dethrone Siddaramaiah, who is working for cause of poor, Subramanya called upon the community members to attend the rally in huge numbers and thus give a fitting reply to those who are conspiring against Siddaramaiah.

Taluk Kuruba Sangha President Basavaraju, Hon. President Nadanahalli Ravi, former Mayors T.B. Chikkanna and Pushpalatha Chikkanna, former APMC President Bandipalya Basavaraju, community leaders K.S. Shivaramu, Patel Javaregowda, Kotehundi Mahadeva and others were present.

BJP-JD(S), Congress rallies are nepotism at play: MLC Vishwanath

'A ruse to establish B.Y. Vijayendra, Nikhil Kumaraswamy and Dr. Yathindra Siddaramaiah as future State leaders'

A.H. Vishwanath, MLC

B. Y. Vijayendra Nikhil Kumaraswamy Dr. Yathindra

Mysuru, Aug. 6 (MTY&BCT)- Former Minister and MLC A.H. Vishwanath has labelled the Bengaluru-Mysuru padayatra by BJP-JD(S) coalition and Congress party's counter 'Janandolana Rally' as a sham, aimed at positioning the next generation of political leaders who happen to be the sons of current leaders.

"It's all a public spectacle. The padayatra and the counter rallies are designed to establish B.Y. Vijayendra (son of former CM B.S. Yediyurappa), Nikhil Kumaraswamy (son of Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy), and Dr. Yathindra Siddaramaiah (son of CM Siddaramaiah) as future leaders of the State," he said.

Speaking to reporters at Pathrakarthara Bhavan yesterday, he accused former CMs Yediyurappa and Kumaraswamy of trying to promote their sons as popular leaders, while CM Siddaramaiah is countering this by projecting Dr. Yathindra. "Public interest is being sidelined in favour of family interests, with nepotism reaching its peak," he added.

On personal attacks

Addressing the issue of personal attacks, Vishwanath criticised the escalating verbal exchanges between BJP and Congress leaders, describing them as intolerable. He labelled the public quarrels among H.D. Kumaraswamy, D.K. Shivakumar and Siddaramaiah as shameful, noting that all three parties are publicly accusing each other and resorting to derogatory language.

This behaviour, he argued, is not only embarrassing but also degrades the Kannada language, which he termed as an atrocity.

Vishwanath expressed concern over the erosion of the culture of dignified language and culture due to political mud-slinging, particularly in culturally rich cities like Mysuru. He pointed out that writers and intellectuals, who benefit from Government schemes, remain silent, further exacerbating the problem. He urged Kannada activists to combat this misuse of language by politicians to restore dignity and preserve cultural values.

'Return the 14 sites to clear taint'

Vishwanath advised CM Siddaramaiah to return the 14 MUDA sites registered in his wife Parvathi's name in Vijayanagar's Third and Fourth Stages and to refer the MUDA 50:50 land allocation scam to the CBI for investigation, to clear the taint on his reputation.

"You always claim to be a true socialist. How much land does your son need? You have only one son. You might have a strong legal team to navigate this controversy, but remember that people are seeing a new side of Siddaramaiah, one that has allegedly misused his power to acquire land. Public image is crucial in politics — don't damage it further," the MLC advised the CM.

CM's Prosecution: All eyes on Guv

Currently, the Governor has adopted a wait-and-watch approach, with any significant action or decision likely to be taken only after the Parliament session ends on Aug. 12.

The Governor has already issued a notice to the Chief Minister — on July 26, seeking his response within seven days — through the Chief Secretary of the Government based on a complaint filed by Abraham.

Govt's response to notice

In response to the Governor's notice, the Government has written three separate letters to the Governor. The Chief Minister himself has explained to the Governor, along with the records of the Cabinet meeting chaired by Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar, urging the withdrawal of the notice.

Siddaramaiah pointed out that during the tenure of former CMs B.S. Yediyurappa and Basavaraj Bommai, complaints were filed against Ministers Murugesh Nirani, Dr. K. Sudhakar and Shashikala Jolle, but the Governor's Office did not take any action, and even a show-cause notice was not issued to them.

Sources said the Governor is considering several options, including granting sanction for prosecution, ordering an independent inquiry by a Police Officer or a sitting High Court Judge or referring the complaint to the Lokayukta Police, requesting a probe report within three months.

Governor consults legal experts

Before issuing the notice to the CM, the Governor's Office conducted a thorough review and obtained more information and records related to the MUDA scam and the site allocation to B.M. Parvathi, Siddaramaiah's wife.

Based on this information, there is contemplation on whether to grant permission for prosecution against the Chief Minister or to use his (Governor) authority to conduct an investigation through Judges and obtain a report within three months.

There have been several discussions from various angles, including the constitutional powers of the Governor. The outcome of these deliberations is keenly awaited as it could set a significant precedent for handling such cases in the future.

Cautious approach

As Abraham has already filed a petition before the Lokayukta, the Governor may refer the case to the Lokayukta Police. The Governor's cautious approach stems from concerns that granting sanction for prosecution could lead to a prolonged legal battle if Siddaramaiah challenges the decision in the Court.

Under the controversial 50:50 scheme, MUDA allotted 50 percent of the land it developed to land losers in lieu of the undeveloped land acquired from them. Accordingly, 14 plots were allotted to Parvathi in a premium layout in Mysuru in exchange for 3 acres and 16 guntas of land acquired from her, which MUDA subsequently developed into a residential layout. However, the very title of that land is under challenge as it had already belonged to MUDA.

CM Siddu's Govt. is worst ever: JD(S) leader S.R. Mahesh

Mysuru, Aug. 6 (BLU&TRR)- Strongly criticising the State Government for encouraging corruption and practicing double standards, while ordering probes into various other cases, former Minister and JD(S) Working President S.R. Mahesh, has termed the ruling Congress Government headed by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, as the worst ever dispensation he had ever seen in his political career spanning over 35 years.

He was addressing media persons at his office on Ramavilas road in the city, this morning.

"I was an MLA when Siddaramaiah was the first time CM during 2013-2018 and was also a Minister in the Cabinet of CM H.D. Kumaraswamy. But I have never seen the level of misadministration, as is being witnessed now. Home Minister Dr.G. Parameshwara, speaks about providing Government job to the wife of Police Sub-Inspector (PSI) Parashuram, who was found dead in mysterious circumstances at Yadgir on Aug. 3, following the alleged harassment by their own Congress party MLA Channareddy Patil Tunnur and his son. But, there is a provision in the Government itself, that the wife of deceased Government Employee should be given a job," said the JD(S) leader, who demanded that the MLA be sacked and arrested in the case.

But, the investigation into the case is handed over to Criminal Investigation Department (CID), only to hush up the case, alleged Mahesh.

Mocks SIT: Terming the Special Investigation Team (SIT) as Shivakumar Investigation Team and Siddaramaiah Investigation Team, Mahesh charged the Government of offering plum posts, to those Officers who dance to their tunes.

Former Minister and JD(S) Working President S.R. Mahesh addressing media persons in city this morning.

Continuing, the JD(S) leader said, Raichur Rural MLA Basanagouda Daddal, also the Chairman of Karnataka Maharshi Valmiki Scheduled Tribes (ST) Development Corporation Ltd., had demanded that the SIT should arrest him, to avoid getting arrested by Enforcement Directorate (ED), which is also probing the scam, but remains not arrested till date.

Haste in Revanna's case: "On the other hand, SIT has submitted a charged sheet in former Minister and MLA H.D. Revanna'case (of kidnapping a sex scandal survivor in the case involving his son). Why it was done in such a haste? It is clear that the Government is protecting Daddal, by handing over the investigation to SIT," he alleged.

Mahesh also came heavily on Minister for Housing, Waqf and Minorities Welfare B.Z. Zameer Ahmed Khan, for his remarks on Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy and pointed out the Government is not providing milk subsidy and other benefits to people. He concluded by advising the State Government to stop revenge politics and focus on good governance, at least during the remaining three-and-a-half years period of its term.

Mahesh, also announced that the convention of ongoing Mysuru Chalo Padyatra will be held in Mysuru on Aug. 10.

Mysuru, Aug. 6 (MK&BCT)- In a move to ensure transparency and accountability, Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) Commissioner A.N. The order warns that any failure to provide the necessary information or any form of negligence that could obstruct the inquiry will result in direct accountability for the section heads, officials and employees.

The directive aims to ensure a thorough and prompt investigation, reinforcing the importance of transparency in addressing the allegations against MUDA.

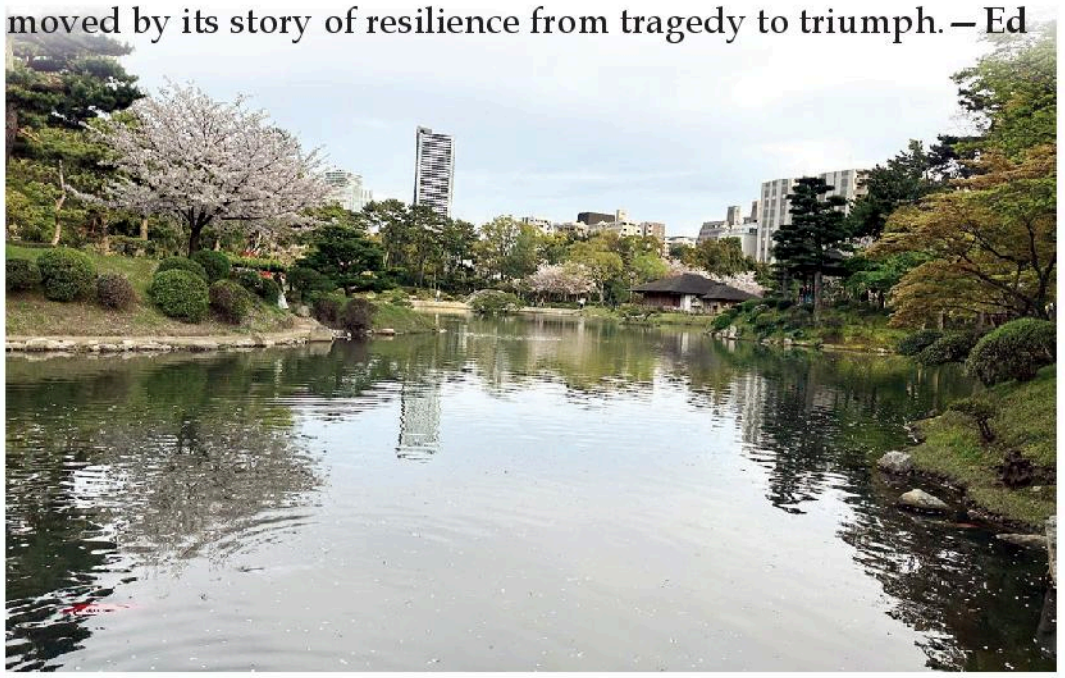
Hiroshima: Journey from Tragedy to Triumph

By Sujata Rajpal

The United States detonated two atomic bombs over the Japanese cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki on Aug. 6 and 9, 1945. The bombings killed between 1,50,000 and 2,46,000 people, most of whom were civilians. To mark the 79th anniversary of atomic bombing on Hiroshima today, here we publish an article by Sujata Rajpal, who recently visited Hiroshima and was moved by its story of resilience from tragedy to triumph.—Ed



Having read extensively about Hiroshima in school textbooks, this city was at the top of our itinerary during a recent visit to Japan. Drenched in catastrophe yet vibrant with hope, Hiroshima, located in the south-western part of Honshu Island, stands as a testament to human resilience.

From the red bus stop, we walked towards the Peace Memorial Park with the imposing Atomic Bomb Dome looming in the distance. This structure, once Hiroshima Prefectural Industrial Promotion Hall, is the only building that partially survived the bombing.

Rightfully designated as a UNESCO World Heritage site, it serves as a perpetual reminder to humanity of the perils of nuclear weapons. The skeletal remains of the building, standing against the backdrop of a serene city, make the horrors of Aug. 6, 1945, feel incredibly real.

The bustling life that once filled those walls, is now reduced to haunting ruins. We were so absorbed in the moment that we didn't think it appropriate to pose in front of the monument.

Spread across a vast expanse of lush greenery and flowing fountains, Peace Memorial Park, dedicated to Hiroshima's legacy as the first city to suffer nuclear attack, is peppered with numerous monuments, each a poignant reminder of the calamity that had annihilated this city. In the centre of the park, Flame of Peace burns continuously as a resolve to make this world nuclear free.

Next to it, a concrete saddle-shaped monument covers an edifice holding the names of the people killed by the bomb. The Children's Peace Monument commemorates Sadako Sasaki and thousands of children who died due to bombing. Sadako survived the bombing but lost her life ten years later to leukaemia caused due to exposure to radiation. Her mission was to fold 1000 paper cones in the hope of recovery. Clutching one of the countless cranes left by visitors, I felt an intimate bond with her story.

At a little distance, in the seminar hall, a twenty-minute documentary of the bombing from the account of the survivors brought alive the calamity. When the film ended, there was not a single dry eye. The Peace Memorial Hall below provides a 360-degree view of the city after the blast. The cylindrical shaped hall has 1,45,000 tiles approximate number of people who had died by the end of 1945, one each for every victim. Many who survived the bombing, later died of leukaemia. Each tile represented a life lost, a story cut short. Silence permeated the hall. The only sound was the sound of flowing water from a fountain signifying the victims who had died crying for a drop of water to soothe their parched throats.

Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum which has artifacts and belongings of victims and survivors like a kids' bicycle, a toy that must have fallen from tiny hands, conveys the horrors of the nuclear war.

Except the museum, the entry to all other places in the Peace Memorial Park is free, reinforcing that Japan urges public to visit Hiroshima.

Standing in front of each monument, gaping, reading the epitaph, a silent gloom hovers in the air. Whatever the logic for dropping the nuclear bomb, there is absolutely no justification for killing innocent people and ravaging an entire city whose effects were to be felt for generations to come. Period.

Stepping outside Peace Memorial Park, the air of gloominess changed into bursting atmosphere of any other city in Japan buzzing with symbols of a developed world, gardens, shopping centres, schools, and state-of-the-art infrastructure narrating a story of rebirth. "At the time of bombing, soothsayers prophesied that nothing will grow on Hiroshima's earth for 75 years but look at this lush green garden with colourful flowers and tall trees," said the guide at the Shukkeien Garden, with its beautifully manicured landscapes and tranquil ponds.

A visit to Hiroshima wouldn't be complete without indulging in Hiroshima-style okonomiyaki, a savory pancake layered with noodles, seafood, and vegetables, cooked on a hot griddle.

Certainly, the bombing of Hiroshima is a crime on humanity, but sadly the bigger crime is — the countries even today fail to learn from the mistakes of their predecessors. Wars go on in various parts of the world unmindful of their impact on generations, mindlessly crushing lives, livelihoods, dreams. What kind of a world it would be without gurgling babies, playing children and joyful people! Hiroshima isn't a destination; it's an experience that promises to stir your soul and ignite your sense of wonder at a country's resilience.

How to reach Hiroshima

The best way to travel to Hiroshima from anywhere in Japan is by Shinkansen (bullet train). From Kyoto it takes 1.5 hours. From Hiroshima Station, board the red Hop-on Hop-off bus, which is free for Japan Rail pass holders. For the non-pass holder, the fare is nominal.

WORD OF THE DAY

Capricious

Pronunciation: kuh-PRISH-us (Adjective)
Meaning: Capricious is a formal word that describes someone or something governed or characterised by impulsivity or unpredictability.
Origin: The adjective capricious and its close relation, the noun caprice (a synonym of whim), both come via French from the Italian word capriccio, which has disputed origins. Capriccio originally referred not to a sudden desire but to a sudden shiver of horror and likely comes from the Italian capo, meaning "head," and riccio, the word for "hedgehog." The implication was that someone who shuddered in fear or horror was said to have a "hedgehog head," meaning that the person's hair stood on end like the spines of a hedgehog. The link between a whim and a shiver of horror is notably tenuous, though, and a possible link to Italian capra, meaning "goat," has also been suggested, given the whimsy goats seem to employ in their gamboling. (A full treatment of the disputed etymology can be found here.) Whatever its origins, capriccio came to mean "whim, fancy," which directly relates to its uses today. Something done in a capricious manner is done on a whim, as in "a capricious decision to join the circus."
Example: "Tornadoes are among planet's most fearsome phenomena, with terrifying & capricious wind speeds measured as high as 300 mph. And US sees more than any other country." — Doyle Rice, USA Today, 9 May 2024

THE ODD WORD

Kilig

The rush or the inexplicable joy one feels after seeing or experiencing something romantic.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Punch above one's weight

Meaning: Performing or achieving results better than expected & beyond one's ability, skill, experience etc.
Origin: In the early 19th century, weight classes in boxing were established and boxing matches were divided into different weight categories — fly-weight, lightweight, etc. Since the regulations were established, only boxers of the same weight category could fight each other. When a boxer from a lighter weight category fought someone in a heavier category, he'd be 'punching above his weight'. Today the term is used figuratively in occasions where someone tries to compete outside their comfort zone and usual class.
Example: "Although Brad isn't the track runner, I think that if he trains hard & punches above his weight, he'll be able to qualify for upcoming contest."

When ambition ends, happiness begins. —Thomas Merton

CRYPTOQUIP

The Cryptoquip is a substitution cipher in which one letter stands for another. If you think that X equals O, it will equal O throughout the puzzle. Single letters, short words and words using an apostrophe give you clues to locating vowels. Solution is by trial and error.
